YACHT HARBOR GETS OIG RECOMMENDATIONS

The City of New Orleans Inspector General today released a report on its review of the New Orleans Municipal Yacht Harbor Management Corporation's Accounting Policies and Procedures. The review was based on best practices and provided 45 recommendations for improvements.

Inspector General Ed Quatrevaux said, "We are happy to assist any City entity that requests OIG assistance because it demonstrates a desire and intent to run an efficient operation free of corruption. The Municipal Yacht Harbor Management Corporation should be commended for seeking help to improve its operations."

The report is attached to this press release. Other reports issued by the Office of Inspector General can be viewed and downloaded from the website at <http://www.nolaoig.org>.
